Presented by: Elizabeth Holley

“Women Spies of the American Revolution” is a presentation that takes us to a time when women were silent, unassuming, and in the background. But these traits are the very reason that women were successful spies! Join us and learn about “her-story”.

“They Also Served: An Orange County Militia Revolution”

Presented by: Sue Gardner

Town of Warwick Deputy Historian Sue Gardner will present the story of Orange County's 4th Militia Regiment under the command of Gen. John Hathorn during the Revolutionary War.

Using primary sources such as pension application accounts, Gardner will show that contrary to common assumptions that militia regiments were primarily engaged in local guard duty, these citizen soldiers were sent far and wide to fill in the ranks, participated in most of the major battles of the lower and Mid-Hudson, and provided essential support services for the Continental Army.

Lisa A. Alzo, M.F.A., is a freelance writer, instructor, and internationally recognized lecturer, specializing in Eastern European research and writing your family history. She is the author of eleven books and hundreds of magazine articles. Lisa works as an online educator and writing coach, and developed the Eastern European Research Certificate Program for the International Institute of Genealogical Studies. Visit <https://www.lisaalzo.com> for more information.

"Ten Things Every Eastern European Genealogist Should Know"

Learn how to maximize your Eastern European genealogy research with the ten key things to know before you even begin. Topics to be addressed: Tips for planting your family tree online, determining names and places, pinpointing places, the best online databases for getting what you need and practices for citing sources and recording information, and what to expect when you cross the pond.

"Make Those Skeletons Dance: Exploring Your Family's Dark Side"

How well do you really know your ancestors? Most of us want to believe our ancestors were hard-working, noble, or "salt-of-the-earth" types. We want to like them, and even brag about them. However, the reality is that if we go back far enough, we all can dig up a few proverbial "skeletons in the closet." The horse thief, the philanderer, the murderer! Oh my! Genealogy is one of the most unpredictable activities you'll undertake, and when you start digging into your family's past, "You never know what you're gonna get." If you suspect a few black sheep lurking in your family tree, this session will show you, with examples, how to hunt them down, bust through the speculation, and tell the real story.

"Immigrant Cluster Communities: Past, Present and Future"

There are a handful of "cluster" immigrant communities throughout the United States that blossomed during the immigration influx of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Exploring "cluster genealogy"—the process of researching those relatives, friends, and neighbors who lived near an ancestor—can often break down brick walls in the search for individual family lines and help to place our ancestors' lives in historical context. For those descendants who've moved away from such traditional immigrant enclaves, 21st-century technology can be used to rebuild "cluster communities" in the virtual world. This lecture will cover: How to identify chain migrations/cluster communities using key records; ways to share and collaborate with other researchers, and the benefits, pitfalls, and obstacles associate with a shift to "virtual" cluster communities; and how to use tools such as social networking sites, Wikis, etc. build online genealogical communities.

TOWN OF WARWICK
TOWN CLERK

Dear Supervisor Dwyer,

We are writing to tell you about Greenwood Lake Theater's upcoming New Works Festival, and to request your consideration for the Town of Warwick to sponsor this project through donation of the indoor theater space at Mountain Lake Park.

The New Works Festival is a project that we are very excited to undertake and share with our community. It can be very challenging for unknown playwrights to find a home for their work. Greenwood Lake Theater is offering three playwrights the opportunity to have a short workshop for their play (so that they may address trouble spots), followed by a public performance of the play. These will be staged readings (actors will have scripts in hand), but produced fully enough so that the playwright and audience gets an idea of how a full production might look. Each play will have lighting, sound, costume, and props, as well as small set pieces.

These performances will be free for the community to attend, and each play will be followed by a talkback session. We want for the community to truly feel like a part of the process, and their feedback is invaluable to the playwright, as well as to us!

We were overwhelmed to have received 350 play submissions for this festival! They were read and scored by an external panel, and then three finalists were selected by a small committee. We are so excited to be able to share these three amazing shows with everyone. We have scheduled two plays to be performed in March, and one to be performed in May.

We would be so grateful if the Town of Warwick would help to sponsor this project through donation of the indoor theater space at Mountain Lake Park for the following dates: March 7-9, and May 3-4. We appreciate your consideration of this request, and want to extend our thanks for your continued support of Greenwood Lake Theater having a home at Mountain Lake Park.

Best Wishes,

Katherine Weatherford

Dear Municipal Official:

For many years, UDIG-New York has hosted free, in-person and virtual Excavator Safety Seminars around the state. These seminars provide new insights regarding safety related to underground facilities.

UDIG-New York will be hosting a series of convenient Safety Kickstart sessions this year. The training will refresh your knowledge of NYS Code Rule 753 and safe digging best practices before the busy construction season.

The virtual sessions are Certified Excavator Program renewal events and there are several Safety Kickstarts scheduled for the month of March.

- March 4, 2025 at the Newburgh Armory, 321 South William Street, Newburgh, NY
- March 13, 2025 at the Sparrowbush Fire Department, 79 Main Street, Sparrow Bush, NY
- March 18, 2025 at the Rockland Fire Training Center, 35 Firemens Memorial Drive, Pomona, NY
- March 27, 2025 at the Wallkill Golf Clubhouse, 40 Sands Road, Middletown, NY

Advanced registration is required, and each attendee must register individually to receive credit for the course. To register, go to the Coursettra Portal login: Login \(udignny.org\). To view the upcoming events, go to <https://udignny.org/get-involved/upcoming-events-training/>. Check in often for all the upcoming events, including in person sessions to be held in March. Please contact John Yehl, your UDIG-New York local field representative for assistance at jyehl@udignny.org.

Hitting and damaging underground lines can result in death, injury, fines, arrests, property damage and sizeable repair bills. Our colleagues at UDIG-New York are committed to producing compelling educational damage prevention sessions. Please consider having your municipal crews and excavators you work with attend. It'll be time well spent.
